NOTTINGHAM TERRACES | UNDERDALE

A NEW LIFE

Quietly tucked away in suburban Underdale, Nottingham Terraces are ready to make someone's happiness complete. Their distinctive sawtooth design is a respectful nod to the area's heritage, while gently ushering in the next chapter of the story.

The lovely raked ceiling allows the living quarters to be bathed in natural light, enhancing the joy of those deliciously languid weekends at home. And when the urge for adventure strikes it's just a short trip that separates you from the best the city or the beach has to offer, whether by car or the excellent public transport options on offer.

Welcome to your new life in Nottingham Terraces, where the future is bright.
